B. Financial Update

Lauren Wright

As of the close of the second quarter of FY 2024 Court Fines and Fee revenues are up marginally over the same time last fiscal year. Expenditures are up 11% over the same period last year, largely due to the law enforcement pay plan and statewide increases that went into effect on July 1st. SCCJA revenue remains sufficient to cover agency expenses.

C. Capital Project Update

John Yarborough

- Target Systems: Range 3 complete, received the wrong mounts for range 1, waiting for the engineer to come.
- Generator: Pre-construction meeting held last November.
- West dorm rest rooms: Bid documents being prepared.
- We had a boiler that failed, and it was retubed, the work was completed yesterday. Now we are waiting for the inspection to bring it back online.

D. Director's Comments

Director Swindler

Director Swindler reported that last year 232 agencies were evaluated for the statute that passed of having the 9 model policies. Mike O'Connell and Bob Bianco saw 116 agencies each. He stated that 31 agencies signed an MOU with SCLEA, leaving 201 agencies in compliance with the 9 model policies after evaluation. We have received many compliments on how Mike and Bob made the process seamless and helpful.

Director Swindler reported that Scott Deckard started auditing and sent 70 agencies requests to confirm if their rosters match what the Academy has as their roster. We have added to our website, in forms, for agencies to put in writing who their command staff is, not by name but by position and title. For the purpose of knowing who to contact on background checks.

Director Swindler reported that after the Academy's budget meeting, we requested to upgrade our security system by adding over 100 cameras. If approved, this will help us with security.

Director Swindler gave updates on Cohort 1 and Cohort 2 at the EPPS University of South Carolina Law School. He met with the students involved, they are very pleased with the program.

Director Swindler stated that the Academy finished up last year with 24 Basic Law Enforcement graduations, with 1,100 graduates. He stated that more people are staying in Law Enforcement than left.

OLD BUSINESS

There was unfinished business to discuss.

NEW BUSINESS

There was no new business to discuss.
